Linen Closet

FOR AN EXOTIC YET HOMESPUN LOOK ON YOUR BED, GATHER DECORATIVE ACCESSORIES FASHIONED WITH EMBROIDERED MOTIFS

Embroidered linens bring texture to your bed, and you can use them in surprising ways. A vintage Burmese sarong refashioned into a throw, for example, makes a quirky and colorful accent at the foot of a bed. A few accent pillows with stitched designs add an artisanal flavor. Though you'll want the cases for pillows on which you lay your head to be soft and smooth, you can get a handcrafted look using linens with embroidered borders.

On back of chair: Avril linen standard sham, $88, from Alexandre Turpault; in CA, 818-887-5036. On chair, from top: Beaufort standard sham, $62, in cotton sateen with metallic embroidery, from Pine Cone Hill, in MA, 413-496-9700; Masuda Red 12-by-16-inch pillow, $55, Designers Guild, 866-781-5695; vintage Burmese sarong throws, one turquoise, one purple, $600 each, from John Robshaw Textiles, johnrobshaw.com; Classic Flower red and white embroidered boudoir pillow, $90, from Deborah Sharpe Linens, 800-247-9019; black and white embroidered silk taffeta throw, $460, Metropolitan Design Group, marksniderhome.com. Tukuro side chair in recycled pine, $1,200, from Tucker Robbins, tuckerrobbins.com. ▷
