

weddings

MARTHA STEWART

sheer magic...

tissue paper details
(even these flowers!)

exquisitely beautiful dresses

unexpected cake flavors

SPRING 2006

$5.95 USA (Can $6.95)
marthastewart.com

yellow and white
sweet little daisies

Sugar-paste daisies drift down a fondant-covered cake, by Gail Watson of New York City. This effect is created by covering the top tier entirely with the blooms, and placing fewer and fewer on the bottom tiers. The choice of daisies, a decidedly old-fashioned flower, gives the simple, modern design a retro appeal. The cake's petite form gains presence when displayed on a footed cake stand.

