

BON APPÉTIT

APRIL 2007

$3.99

AMERICA'S FOOD AND ENTERTAINING MAGAZINE

Lemon Meringue Ice Cream Pie
in Toasted Pecan Crust

SPOT ON

Two trendy colors come together in a cheerful pattern that would brighten up any spring table. "Coaster" napkins in ice and chocolate, $44 for a set of six, 800-559-7341 or potluckstudios.com for stores.

SET FOR SEDER

Tel Aviv-based designer Laura Cowan created this sleek and modern interpretation of the traditional seder plate. Cowan's 13x13-inch "Moon Seder Plate" in polished aluminum, $175; 310-440-4505 or skirball.org for store information.

MAN WITH A PAN

Hell's Kitchen chef Gordon Ramsay knows a thing or two about cookware—so you know his new line of copper pots is going to be worth the investment. Tri-ply copper 5.5-quart sauté pan with lid, $270; 800-682-4462; royaldoulton.com.

TEA AND TRADITION

The ancient art of Kiyomizu-yaki pottery continues to thrive in Kyoto. Own a little piece of Japanese history. Handmade teacup, $45; 866-584-5116; cooksshophere.com.

MIGHTY FINE

This beast of a stick blender is big and powerful—just the tool for any number of heavy-duty kitchen jobs. Breville 15½-inch stainless steel BCS600XL hand blender with three attachments, $150; 866-273-8455; brevilleusa.com.

