"I LOVE HAVING AN ELEGANT MEAL IN THE RUSTIC OLD BARN WITH COLORFUL NEW TABLE LINENS. IT'S A FUN MIX!"

In the barn, the picnic table is set for a midday feast. OPPOSITE: Kate preps the homemade crust for the luncheon's eagerly anticipated finale: one of her famous peach-raspberry pies. Because space is at a premium at this tiny homestead, a lot happens outdoors. Kate's food-prep surface is actually her dining table, which she protects with an oil cloth. In summer she takes her bowls and tables outside to create an all-fresco prep area, hanging a lantern from a tree for a "kitchen" light.
