

SAN DIEGO

April 2007

At Home™

GREEN DAYS

Eco-friendly homes
inside and out

Future on the Roof

Playing it cool with
sky-high gardens

Office Heroics

A design firm
rewrites the laws
of the workplace

TRENDS

Square trays, $70 for set of three, crafted from sustainable, plantation-sourced, renewable wood, by Potluck Studios, 800-559-7341, potluckstudios.com.

Sarah Cihat's reglazed vintage dish, $59. For a list of retailers, sarahcihat.com.

Aaron Kramer's gourd sculpture made from recycled street-sweep bristles, $790, at Mixture, downtown, 619-239-4788; mixturedesigns.com.

Recycled-glass pitcher, $368; cups, $252 each, by Esque, 503-289-6392; esquedesign.com.

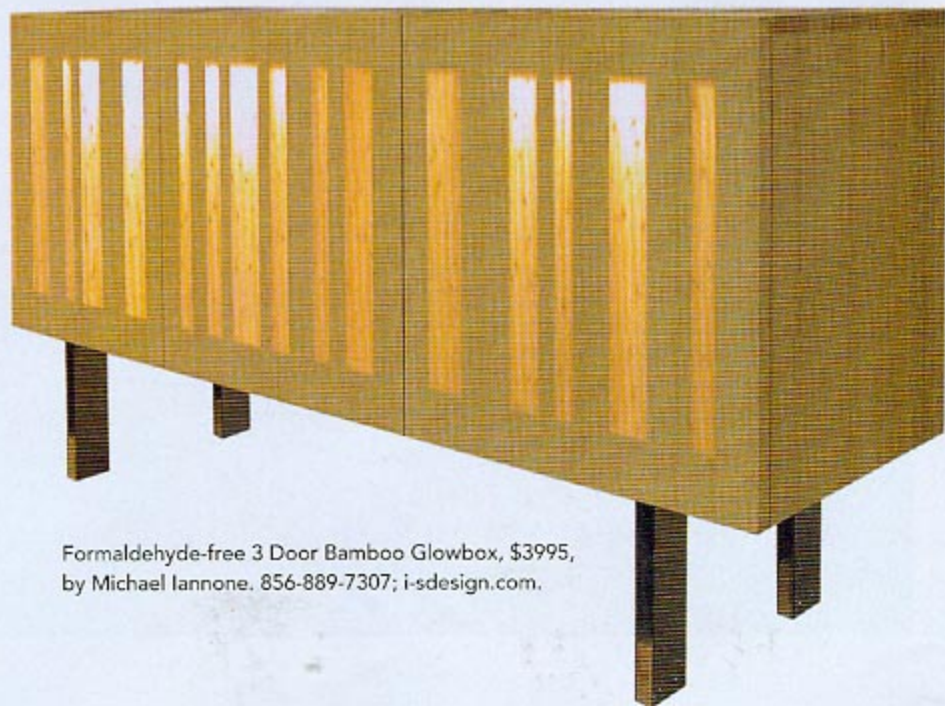

Will Barton's acrylic on wood and recycled tin ceiling tile, Lightnin', $400, at Mixture, downtown, 619-239-4788; mixturedesigns.com.

Bamboo bowls, $39.50 (large), $14.95 (medium), by Bambu. 877-435-5176; strawsticksandbricks.com.

LIVE GREEN

Who says being good is boring?
Outfit your home with clever pieces
made from recycled materials or sustainable wood.

Formaldehyde-free 3 Door Bamboo Glowbox, $3995, by Michael Iannone. 856-889-7307; i-sdesign.com.